About BTFC: Our aim is to give children from the local area an opportunity to enjoy being part of a football club which develops their technique, skills and fitness in a safe and positive environment. Whilst football is the centre of the clubs activities, being involved in a club and a team also teaches youngsters many social skills including teamwork, reliance and reliability, responsibility, tolerance, understanding, friendship and loyalty. BTFC also provides a social environment for the children and parents alike, with the club organising many events which youngsters and adults can enjoy together.

For more information: Contact Ken Montgomery on 07990 830466 or via email to: ken.montgomery@bedlingtontownfc.co.uk

Health & Safety: Please note for health & safety purposes all children attending sessions are required to bring along a drink, wear shin pads & appropriate clothing as sessions take place outdoors. All sessions are carried out by Fully FA Qualified Coaches who are CRB cleared & First Aid Trained.
